EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Travelers,

Welcome to Travel Mirror magazine! Nestled in the Indian Ocean, Sri Lanka captivates travelers with its breathtaking beauty and rich cultural heritage. From sun-kissed beaches to lush highlands, our island offers attractions for every adventurer. Whether exploring ancient cities, trekking through jungles, or relaxing on golden sands, Sri Lanka promises extraordinary experiences.

Our country is a paradise for nature lovers, boasting an astonishing biodiversity. Majestic elephants, elusive leopards, and vibrant birds call Sri Lanka home. National parks and nature reserves provide sanctuaries of untouched beauty, where wildlife thrives in harmony. Sri Lanka's cultural tapestry is equally rich, with landmarks like the sacred city of Kandy and the ancient rock fortress of Sigiriya telling stories of our glorious past. Festivals, rituals, and traditions offer a glimpse into the soul of this enchanting nation.

This Travel Mirror magazine aims to inspire locals and tourists alike to discover the many facets of Sri Lanka. We issue this magazine to celebrate our heritage, promote tourism, and provide insights into the unique experiences awaiting visitors. Whether planning your next adventure or dreaming of far-off places, let Sri Lanka's beauty, diversity, and warm welcome captivate your heart.

We issue this magazine not only to guide tourists from around the globe but also to remind local readers of the incredible beauty and cultural richness that lies just beyond their doorsteps. By showcasing the unparalleled biodiversity and captivating attractions of Sri Lanka, we hope to foster a deeper appreciation and encourage sustainable travel practices.

Wishing you happy travels and unforgettable experiences,

WHY TOURISTS FLOCK TO THE KANDY DALADA PERAHERA

1 A Living Heritage of Faith and Royal Splendor

The Kandy Esala Perahera, also known as the Festival of the Tooth, is a ten-day procession held in July or August in Kandy, Sri Lanka, honoring the Sacred Tooth Relic of the Buddha enshrined at the Sri Dalada Maligawa (Temple of the Tooth). Rooted in traditions dating back to the 3rd century BCE with the Esala Perahera and involving the Tooth Relic since the 4th century CE, it stands as a vivid tribute to Sri Lanka's religious and historical legacy.

2 A Mesmeric Cultural Extravaganza

It's not just a procession—it's a cultural explosion. Elephants draped in ornate garments, Kandyan dancers in dazzling Ves costumes, whirlwinds of drummers, whip crackers, torchbearers, stilt-walkers, and flag bearers form a cascading sequence of artistry and devotion. The final water-cutting ceremony (Diya Kepeema) at the Mahaweli River encapsulates the ritual's spiritual closure.

3 A Celebration of Sri Lankan Identity

This festival is a vibrant convergence of Buddhist and Hindu influences, symbolizing unity through diversity.

4 Global Recognition & Spiritual Pilgrimage

The Temple of the Tooth, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1988, anchors this festival in global cultural significance. The Perahera itself is seen as a timeless pilgrimage, an immersive experience of ancient rites and artistry.

THE MOST HISTORICAL
WORLD

The Kandy Perahera, one of Sri Lanka's most spectacular cultural and religious festivals, traces its roots to ancient Buddhist traditions and royal patronage. The concept of the Perahera pageant gained prominence during Emperor Asoka's reign in India and later flourished in Sri Lanka, blending Buddhist and Hindu customs. Deeply linked to the veneration of the Sacred Tooth Relic of Lord Buddha, the procession follows rituals detailed in the 14th-century Dalada Siritha, written during King Parakramabahu IV's reign. These statutes prescribe elaborate ceremonies — from decorating the city and shrine to sacred offerings — performed with devotion and grandeur. Today, the Kandy Perahera continues to uphold these timeless traditions, symbolizing the enduring heritage and spiritual unity of Sinhala culture.

KUMBAL PERAHERA (KUMBAL PROCESSION)

The first procession of the Sacred Tooth Relic starts with the Kumbal Perahera. This is the first Kumbal Perahera shown to the infants to drive away Evil Spells and Ill will. It is a tradition that the procession parades the streets of Kandy for five days. But the Kumbal Perahera is popular and remains as an unfinished procession or a semi procession. The reason is that Nilames do not walk in this procession. But the Drummers and Tuskers take part without any ceremonial costumes.

RANDOLI PERAHERA (RANDOLI PROCESSION)

This could be seen only with the procession of the Sacred Tooth Relic and parade the streets for whole five days which is a tradition. In the days of the Kings, the Chief Queens of the Kings paraded in this procession in Palanquins. As the participation of the Queens was not proper to the procession of the Sacred Tooth Relic they were stopped but a palanquin is taken in the procession as an honor to the Queen. Today it is taken as the last item of the procession. The four Devalas carry their own decorated palanquins with religious articles of the Devalas. Although palanquins are carried the honor they receive is no less.

MAHA RANDOLI PERAHERA (THE GRAND RANDOLI PROCESSION)

The Maha Randoli Perahera is the last Procession. It is the grandest event of the festival. The Tuskers come with garlands and decorated with gold stitched costumes. The drummers come fully dressed with ceremonial costumes. The Diyawadana Nilame adds a novel glamour to the procession by wearing a newly stitched costume.

THE MODERN PERAHERA

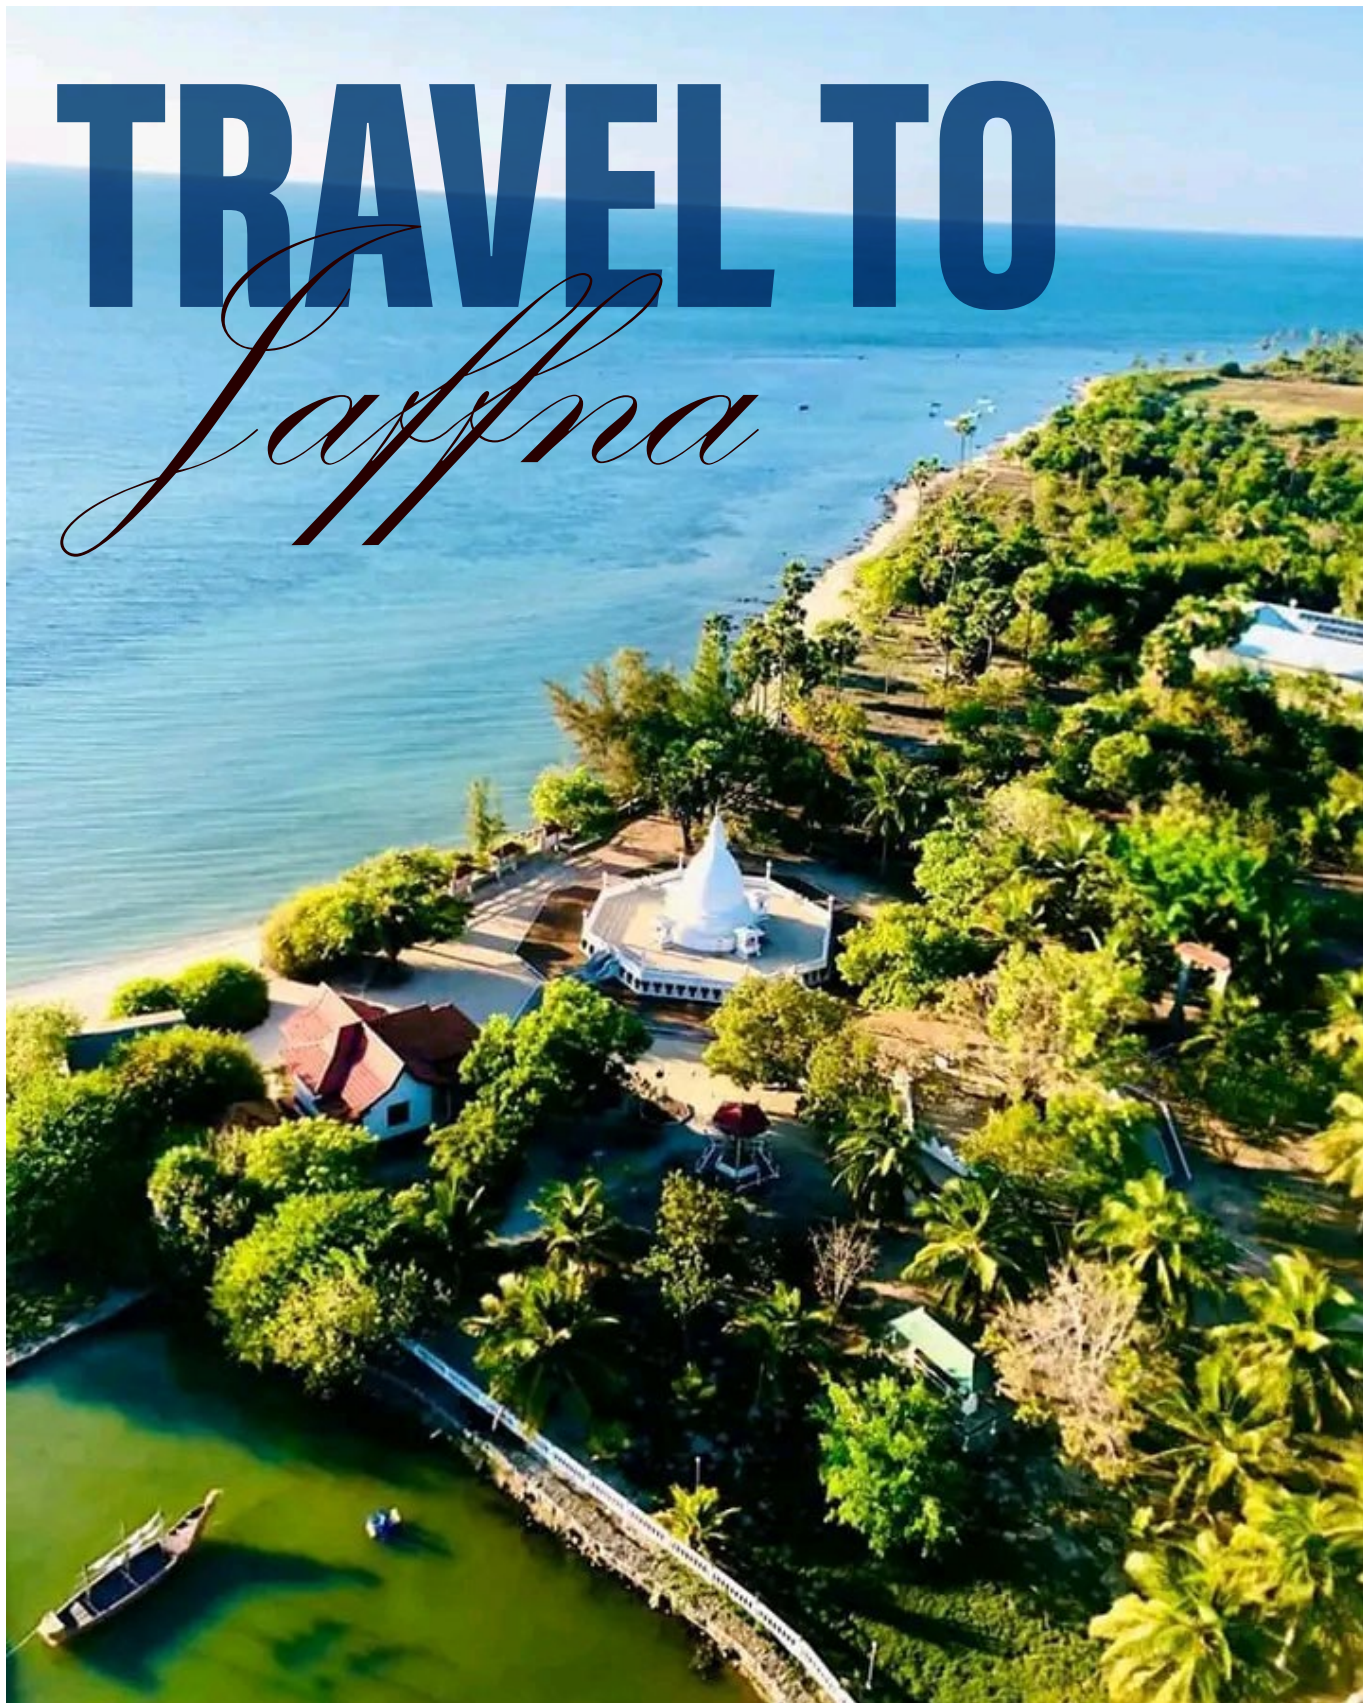

The Modern Perahera dates back to the reign of the Kandyan King Kirthi Sri Rajasinghe (1747 – 1781 AD). During these times, the Tooth Relic was considered the private property of the King and the public never got a chance to worship it. However, King Rajasinghe decreed that the Relic is taken in procession for the masses to see and venerate. After the Kandyan Kingdom fell to the British in 1815, the custody of the Relic was handed over to the Buddhist Clergy. In the absence of the king, a lay custodian called the “Diyawadana Nilame” was appointed to handle routine administrative matters.

PROCESSION VALUE

The Kandy Esala Perahera begins with the Kap Situveema or Kappa, in which a sanctified young Jackfruit tree (Artocarpus integrifolia) is cut and planted in the premises of each of the four Devalas dedicated to the four guardian gods Natha, Vishnu, Katharagama and the goddess Pattini. Traditionally it was meant to shower blessing on the King and the people.

Auto record වෙන හරි ලස්සන තැන්. යද්දි එන
නුළඟ, ඒ නුළඟ වෙනම එකක්. අපි යාපනේට
ච්ඡිදි නවස පහට වගේ ඇති. ඒ වගේම යාපනේ
නවාතැන වුණු නාග විහාර විශ්‍රාම ශාලාව. ඊ
කෑම ගත්තේ ඊට විහාපැත්තේ තිබ්බ Akshathai
සයිවර් කඩෙන්. එකම කාමරේ ඔක්කොමලා
එක්ක එළිවෙනකන් කයිය ගහපු අපි, අපේ
පලවෙනි දවස ආගමානුකූලව පටන් ගන්න
හිතුවා.

නාගදිපය - The Island of Legends

Jaffna trip එකේ Must visit location එකක්
තමයි නාගදිපය. පොඩි බොට්ටුවකින් දුපතට
යන්න පුළුවන්. නාගදිප විහාරයයි නාගපුෂ්ණම්
කෝවිලයි මේ දෙකම එකම දවසේ දකිනවා
කියන්නේ ඒක විවිධ සංස්කෘතික අත්දැකීමක්.
අපි පන්සලටයි කෝවිලටයි ගිහිල්ලා චිද්දි උදේ
10 වගේ ඇති. පන්සල ලඟ කඩේකින් රෝල්ස්
එකක් කාලා ආපහු දුපතෙන් බොට්ටුවෙන්
ඇවිල්ලා අපි දඹකොල පටුන විහාරයට ගියා.

දඹකොල පටුන විහාරය - History in Every Brick

මේ විහාරය, යාපනයේ ඉතාමත් ගෞරවයෙන් වැජඹෙන විහාරයක්. මනෝහර බෝධිය, සිහින් මුහුදු සුළඟ, මුහුදු රළේ ඒ ඔබ්බේදී Spiritual vibe එකක් ලබා දෙනවා.

ඊළඟ අපේ සංචාරය වූයේ කෝවිලක්. ඊට කලින් සයිවර් කඩයකින්ම දවල් කෑම ගත්තා. ආ යාපනේ යඳ්දි අනිවාර්යයෙන් ඔයාගේ කෑම වේල සයිවර් එකෙන් ගන්න. මොකද Jaffna style food taste එක වෙනම එකක්. අපි කෑවේ නම් කහ බතක්.

Nallur Kandaswamy Kovil - The Spiritual Heart

Jaffna යනකොට Nallur temple එකට නොගිහිනි බෑ. රතු-කහ පාට Tower එක, සන්සුන් මනෝභාවය, කොවිල්වල සිනුවල ටිලිං ටිලිං සඳ්දේ, මට හිතුවේ මගේ Life එකේ මේ මොහොත Timeless moment එකක් කියලා කියන්න පුලුවන්.

කාලය ටික ටික ගෙව්වා හවස් වෙන්නත් ලගයි. Sunset vibe එක ගන්න Beach පැත්තට ගියා.

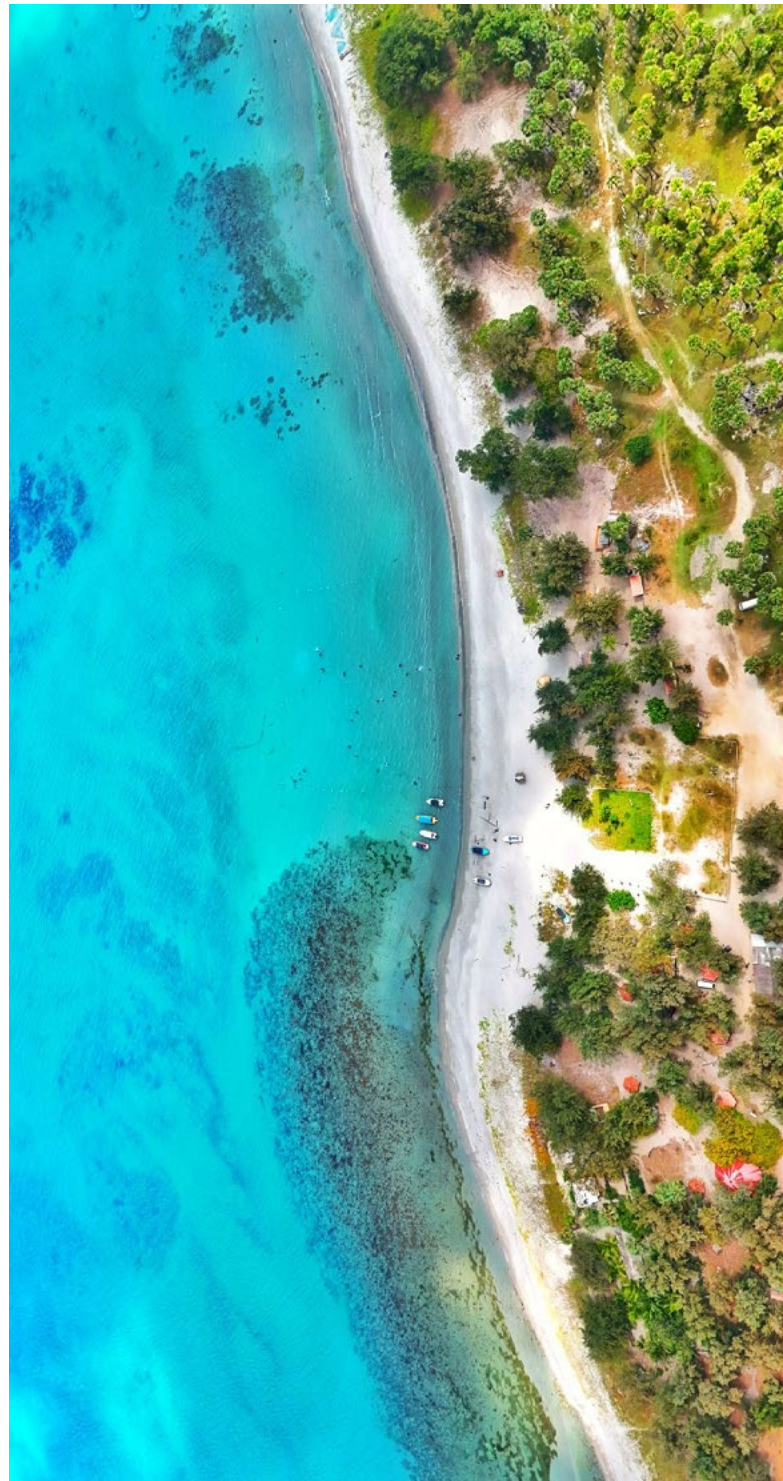

Casuarina Beach - Where Time Slows Down

Casuarina Beach, Karainagar තමයි පලවෙනි දවසේ අවසාන ගමනාන්තය. Soft sand, පෙනෙන තරම් පිරිසුදු ජලය. ලස්සන Blue gradient sea එක Sunset Vibe එක ගන්න පුලුවන් ලංකාවේ ලස්සනම තැනක්. It's pure magic.

අනතුරුව රෑ කෑමත් අරන් අපි අපේ නවාතැනට ගියා.

Jaffna වල ආහාර කියන්නේ වෙනම කතාවක්. Mutton curry, Jaffna kool (seafood soup), Palmyra sweet මේ වගේ Authentic flavours මං recommend කරන්නේ හදවතින්මයි. Local hotel ownerගේ Friendly welcome එකට නම් ඇත්තටම හිතගියා.

අපේ යාපනේ අන්තිම දවස ඒ තමා දෙවනි දවස. කලින් දවසේ මහන්සියට හොඳට නින්ද ගිය නිසා

නැගිට්ටේ උදේ 10ට වගේ. විනාපැත්තේ සයිවර් කඩෙන් කාලා අපේ දෙවනි දවස පටන් ගන්නා.

Jaffna Fort - History Meets Horizon

Jaffna Shopping - Colours & Culture

Rio Ice Cream - A Sweet Tradition

Jaffna trip එකක්
Rio ice cream
නැතුව complete නෑ.
ඒ රස්තෙට අයිස්ක්රීම්
කනවා කියන්නේ ඉතින්.. Large scoops, Bright colours, childhood
vibe එක වගේම අයිස්ක්රීම්වල රස
අපේ ගමනට තවත් රසයක් එකතු
කලා. යාපනේ එද්දි අනිවාර්යයෙන්
Shopping Experience එකක් නම්
ගන්නම ඕනේ. අපේ හවස් කාලය
ගෙවුණේ එහෙම.

Jaffna Town marketsවල
Palmyra Baskets, Handloom
Sarongs, Spices, Local Jaffna
Sweets අපිට ගන්න පුලුවන්. Street
Scenesවල Colours, Sounds,
Smells - eye-catching visuals
වගේම ඒක වෙනම Vibe එකක්.

දවස් දෙකම නොදැනීම

ගතවුණා. පහුවදා උදේ
නවාතැන්පොළට වගේම
සුන්දර යාපනයට සමු
දිලා ගෙදරට එන්න
පිටත් වුණා.

Jaffna කියන්නේ
තවත් ශ්‍රී ලංකාවක්.

එහි දවස්, මිනිස්සු,

Friendly Nature, Proud

Culture, සහ ආදරය අපේ
ගතට හිතට අමුතුවම Vibe එකක්.
අවසානයේ මම දැනගත්තේ Jaffna
is not just a place you visit, it's a feeling you take home.
